

Launch conference of the Transparency International report on The EU Integrity System

29 April 2014, Science 14 Atrium, Rue de la Science 14, Brussels

How able is “Brussels” to uphold EU integrity? A look at transparency, accountability and ethics in EU institutions

Time	Item	Speakers
14.30	Welcome	Carl Dolan Director, Transparency International EU Office (TI-EU)
14.40	Keynote address: “Integrity in the EU institutions”	Emily O’Reilly European Ombudsman
15.00	Presentation of EUIS report	Mark Perera EUIS Lead Researcher, TI-EU
15.15	Panel discussion 1: More EU accountability and transparency: Can it only come with less efficiency? Chair: Daniel Guéguen Chairman, PACT European Affairs; Visiting Professor, College of Europe	Panellists: Professor Deirdre Curtin Professor of European Law, University of Amsterdam; Member of the EUIS Advisory Group Ambassador Pilvi-Sisko Vierros-Villeneuve Permanent Representative of Finland to the EU [Third Speaker TBC]
16.30	BREAK
16.45	Panel discussion 2: Too little integrity, too much influence? Stocktaking EU efforts to curb undue lobbying and conflicts of interest Chair: Lisbeth Kirk Editor-in-chief, EU Observer	Panellists: Paul de Clerck Economic Justice Coordinator, Friends of the Earth Europe, and member of the ALTER-EU Steering Committee Professor Justin Greenwood Professor of European Public Policy at the Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen, UK Ulrika Kilnes Policy Analyst, Public Governance and Territorial Development, OECD
18.00	Closing Remarks	Carl Dolan Director, Transparency International EU Office
18.10	RECEPTION

To register contact: euis@transparency.org