

The delegation DIE LINKE. in the European parliament and the Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung Brussels invite you to:

Panel discussion: Just Transition and Speeding up the Development of Renewable Energies

Monday, 6 November 2017, 4.30 pm – 7.00 pm, in Bonn, Germany

How can the social-ecological transition towards a low-carbon society be achieved? How could we launch a European sustainable and progressive re-industrialisation strategy? How can the phase-out of coal be cushioned socially and economically? How can new industrial jobs in the manufacturing sector be created? How can we ensure that the newly created jobs are decent work and are unionised?

Molly Walsh, Friends of the Earth Europe, Brussels

Frederik Moch, Head of Department for Structural and Industrial Policy in the National Executive Board of Deutscher Gewerkschaftsbund (DGB, German Trade Union Confederation)

Sean Sweeney, Trade Unions for Energy Democracy, United States

Facilitator: Claus-Dieter König, Deputy Director Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung Brussels

After the panel discussion: networking reception
